History of the Firm

In 1997, Johnny Cochran partnered with Samuel A. Cherry, Jr., Keith Givens, and Jock M. Smith. The partnership of Cochran Cherry Givens & Smith provided the framework which launched The Cochran Firm. With the first offices located in Los Angeles and New York, The Cochran Firm expanded into a national law firm with regional offices across the U.S., giving the firm the ability to represent clients in multiple states.

Mission Statement

With regional offices everywhere, the Cochran Firm is one of the nation's largest personal injury firms with some of the most aggressive personal injury attorneys, know for their tireless and effective legal representation. The Cochran Firm partners have secured $35 billion in verdicts, settlements and judgments for our clients.

With a reputation like ours, it's easy to get swept away in accolades and awards. At the Cochran Firm, though, our experienced and aggressive personal injury and criminal defense lawyers focus not on praise, but dedication handling quality, legal representation for injured people, their families and the ordinary citizens as implemented by Johnny Cochran, over four decades ago.

Andre' Ramsay

Attorney Andre' C. Ramsay joined The Cochran Firm Atlanta in 2016. He previously worked as an Associate Attorney at a fast-paced North Atlanta law firm specializing in the practice areas of Workers' Compensation, Personal Injury, and Social Security Disability. Mr. Ramsay aggressively represents many injured workers in acquiring all income and medical benefits available to them to the full extent of the law.

Andre' earned a bachelor's degree in Management of Information Studies, with a minor in Business Administration from Florida State University. As an undergraduate student, Andre' was one of 16 students chosen from 23 states for the Florida State University College of Law National Summer Law Program.

Andre' later earned his Juris Doctorate degree from Atlanta's John Marshall Law School. While in law school, Andre' competed in the American Bar Association Client Interviewing and Counseling competition where he placed in the "National Top-6" after winning the Regional competition. Andre' also founded the Caribbean Law Students Association, was a Student Bar Association Class Representative, and a Pre-Trial CALI award recipient. Andre' also clerked for a well-known national law firm, where he had the opportunity to work directly under a former Georgia Workers' Compensation Administrative Law Judge.
